DEM / report

February 10, 1923. Went over reports. Met Mr. Sweeney. Mr.

Sweeney wanted to know if Mr. DeM. had been in touch with Mr. Parker, as he (Sweeney) had secured information that Mr. Parker had come to the City.

Mr. DeM. from his office called up Mr. Parker's home and office in Mount Holly, N.J., and was informed that Mr. Parker was not there and that he would not return for the day.

Mr. DeM. discussed the Case pro and con with Mr. Sweeney, but received no new information, only that Mr. Sweeney was going to try to have Waite get in touch with Mr. Parker and have whatever information was in possession of "The World," turned over to him.

Later on, as per appointment, Mr. DeM. met Mr. Barnhardt and a friend who was with him. As per arranged Mr. DeM. furnished Mr. Barnhardt with refreshments, and the three of us had supper at Whyte's Restaurant.

Mr. DeM. remained with Mr. Barnhardt and his friend until about 8.30 p.m. and then discontinued.

With regards to refreshments with Mr. Barnhardt and friend, Mr. DeM. has already explained this matter to Mr. Pfeiffer personally.
